Calling All Native Youth Leaders of Indian Country:

The success of our outstanding network of engaged, informed youth leaders is something we take great pride in at the Intertribal Agriculture Council. We acknowledge that while our annual IAC Essay Contest presents a unique opportunity for native youth currently enrolled in high school, we have a growing population of our youth network that are now identified as high school graduates, higher education students, and active career professionals. Likewise, we recognize the need for this growing community's voice at the 32nd Annual Intertribal Agriculture Council Membership Meeting.

We are happy to announce a formal call for proposals to participate as a designated IAC Young Professional at the 32nd Intertribal Agriculture Council Membership Meeting & Youth Conference to be held December 10 - 13, 2018 at the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Applicants must be affiliated with a Tribe, possess a high school degree or equivalent, and be at least 18 years of age by December 9, 2018 to be considered for this unique travel scholarship opportunity. Young adults interested in pursuing this opportunity should submit a formal Letter of Intent to Kelsey@IndianAgLink.com to be considered for this opportunity no later than October 15th, 2018.

It is highly recommended that your letter of intent outline the role which you hope to pursue in attending the 2018 IAC Membership Meeting & Youth Conference. How will your participation directly improve your ability to help your community and Indian Country? How will it propel you forward into your career? Help us to understand the capacity in which you'd interact with the producers, youth and chaperone participants, agencies and IAC Staff. Also express to us any special skills or areas of expertise which you'd like to share with us to promote a well-rounded, educational and innovative conference. Should you be submitting a proposal to present, please include a copy of your draft presentation with your letter of intent.

If you have any questions, feel free to call! We look forward to working with you.
